

Tear me up, limb by limb Undress me, from my humanity Wipe away this misery and pain Blow those stormclouds of hate away I don't want to feel anymore I don't want to exist no more Warning example, stay away from me This might be contagious, my misery I am pitiful piece of shit Looking for a way to quit End my sad and disgusting life But, but I'm too scared to die By my own hand I cannot do it Maybe I am crazy, fuckin' lunatic Too late to live, too late to die Too late to laugh, too late to cry Too late to tell the truth, too late to lie
